The II raid's Vera Cruz correspondent mentions a rumor that the cossion to France of the Northean Mexican States of Snora, Sinadoa, and Durango, so long talked of, would finally be consummated in decree to be issued of Maximillan abent the 1st inst.

The Emperor was still on his tour in the interior, and the Empress had left the Capital to meet him. They were both well received by the people wherever they went.

The guerillas in different parts of the country were still giving plenty of employment to the Imperial troops.

Over 1,000 fresh French soldiers for Maximilian had arrived in Vera Cruz and passed into the interior, and more were to come.

My inquiries have led me to a knowledge of facts bearing upon the general management of the United States Telegraph Company, which are exceedingly significant and which, carefully kept from those most interested in them, should te brought distinctly before every stockholder. According to Low's Telegraph and Kullroad Directory, page 133, the United States Telegraph Company's wires cover the same territory, substantially, as those of the Western Union and American Telegraph Companies. Yet the gress earnings of these antagonistic Companies for the last half of 1894, according to the sworterms of the respective. centres of the proper efficers of the respective Companies, as recently stated in the New York llerald, were as follows
